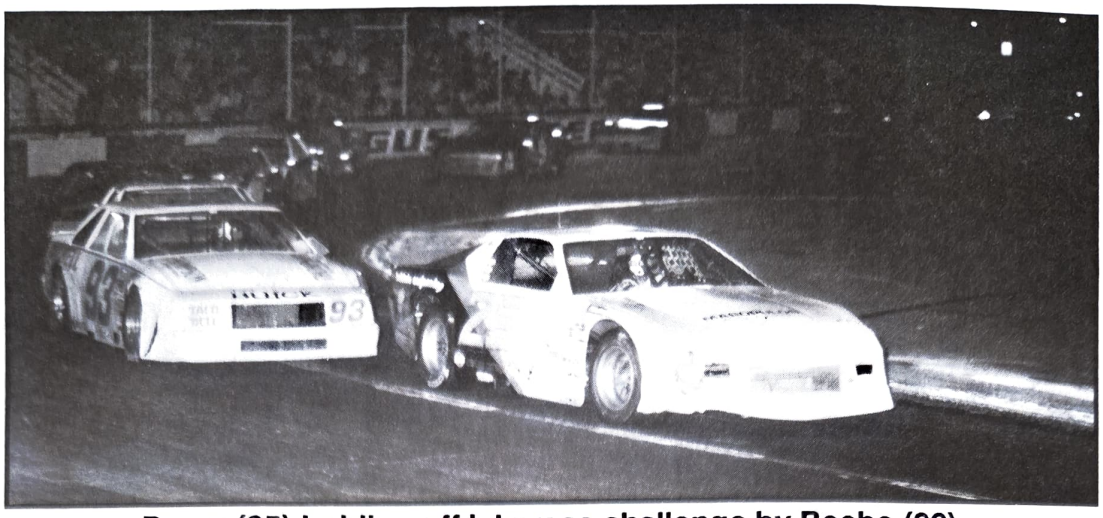
LAST WEEK AT THE SUPER TRACK



Press (25) holding off late race challenge by Beebe (93)

PRESS POSTS FOURTH TOUR VICTORY ON HOME TRACK

Former two time Saugus champion and current NASCAR Southwest Tour point leader Dan Press drove to his fourth win of 1989 Saturday night at Saugus Speedway.

Outside front row starter, defending tour champion Roman Calczynski passed pole sitter Ken Pederson out of turn two, however, Calczynski's ill-handling car could not maintain his advantage and Pederson regained the lead on lap seven. Pederson set the pace until he pitted with mechanical problems on the 26th circuit. Mike Chase took over the lead but only led for five laps before he spun in turn two bringing out the first of only three yellow flags.

M. K. Kanke assumed the lead just ahead of Troy Beebe and Press. Kanke held the top spot for the next several laps while Press was all over Beebe for second. Press repeatedly tried the outside passes only to be pinched off into the wall by Beebe. Press being unable to run the outside groove, was forced to try the inside on Beebe. Finally on lap 62, Beebe and Press touched coming out of turn four causing Beebe to spin.

Press continued in second as Beebe rejoined the race without a caution flag. Press overtook Kanke in just six laps and began to pull away, never to be challenged as he easily outran the competition. In the final laps, Beebe and Chase, who both had recovered from earlier spins, battled down to the checkered for second place with Beebe finishing just ahead of Chase. Kanke, Randy Laskowski and Ron Hornaday Jr. were the remaining cars in the lead lap finishing fourth, fifth and sixth respectively.

NASCAR STREET STOCK RACE REPORT, JUNE 17, 1989

MARLEWSKI POST FIRST STREET STOCK WIN OF '89

Jim Marlewski scored his first win of the year while Russ Beckers was declared the winner in the figure 8 main event for his third win.

Marlewski, pole-sitter for the 25-lap street stock oval feature would lead every lap enroute to victory, however, Marlewski was not without challenge. Eric Foster moved to second on the second lap and challenged Marlewski throughout the remainder of the race but Foster never got by Marlewski and had to settle for second. Rick Crow moved to third on lap 24, only to crash into the spun car of Sue Pittinato in a race to a yellow flag. In a last lap scramble for third, Beckers came through to finish third ahead of Craig Rayburn and Chuck Schardt.

Beckers and Rayburn occupied the front row for the 15-lap figure 8 event with Dale White Jr. and Crow in row two. Beckers fell to third on the start behind Rayburn and White. The order at the front remained the same in the following laps as Rayburn and White battled hard for the top spot and on lap 13 White finally found his way by in turn two only to be then spun out by Rayburn as they entered turn three. Rayburn regained the lead, but meanwhile, Crow had just passed Beckers for what became second. The leaders maintained those positions to the finish however that was not the official finishing order. Rayburn was penalized nine positions for rough driving so that he finished tenth just behind White who was ninth. Crow also was penalized one position for cutting a tire marker giving the win to Beckers. Crow was credited with second followed by Steve Nickolai, John Kirby and Tom Eurton.

In the mini stock division, Pat Dennison completed a near perfect night by winning the mini stock feature race after setting a new qualifying record of 18.13 seconds before winning the trophy dash and finishing second in his heat race. Preston Davis was second ahead of Claude Mereau, Garrett Yamada and Leonard Rowe.
